This book is dedicated to...

Tree was a pine tree, a big pine tree, but he longed to be bigger. His biggest wish, his greatest dream, was to be the tallest tree of all. But alas, Tree had stopped growing. He was so sad that he couldn't reach his dream.

Then, one day, new people moved into the house nearby. They started to water Tree regularly. To Tree's surprise, he started to grow! He grew taller and taller, reaching for the sky.

Finally, Tree reached his dream! He was the tallest tree of all! He felt wonderful and stood proudly, watching over his surroundings with joy.
